

Aztec Home Inspector Training

Privacy Policy

By registering for an online course with Aztec Home Inspector Training, you give permission for us to share your name, address and course information with DPOR Department of Professional and Occupational Regulations when requested by DOPR to do so. You will be notified if DPOR makes any request for your information regarding course's taken and completion of any course taken. Your information will not be sold or provide to any other person or entity outside of DPOR without your written consent. Aztec Home Inspector Training is required by DOPR to maintain your information regarding the courses you take part in for a period of three years from the date of course completion.

Who owns the information collected by Aztec Home Inspector Training?

Aztec Home Inspector Training is the sole owner of information collected by this website. This information is provided by you freely and so our home inspector training courses can be access by you. We do not share your information with any person or entity without your written permission, regardless of how that information is shared with us. We may contact you in the future via email and direct mail regarding new courses or reminders to accomplish a course to obtain your CE/CPE's to maintain your home inspector's licenses. Your information is protected through our website which can be verified by noticing the "https" in front of our website address.

If you have any questions regarding your information you can email your questions to admin@aztechomeinsprtraining.com You should expect a response in 24-48 hours.

Aztec Home Inspector Training does not store, maintain or keep your credit card information. This information is collected by a third-party credit card processor Stripe. You can view their privacy policy at <https://stripe.com/privacy>